

CLASSICAL LANGUAGES (CLAL)

CLAL 494. Senior Capstone. (4 Credits)

Classical Language majors will take a capstone course in their senior year that connects the ancient languages with other areas of inquiry. The student will do focused research on the Hebrew, Greek, and/or Latin texts of the ancient world. Students will demonstrate how their chosen topic relates to Christian faith. Must be in last year at Wheaton.

General Education: SHAR

CLAL 499. Classical Languages Honors Thesis. (4 Credits)

An independent project requiring advanced research and argumentation, developed in a scholarly paper. By application only.