

CERTIFICATE IN HUMANITARIAN LEADERSHIP

Program Director, Kent Annan

Requirements for the Humanitarian Leadership Certificate are 10 credit hours¹ as follows:

Code	Title	Credits
Requirements¹
Section A - Foundational with SPHERE Requirement (Select 1-2 courses, ranging from 0-6 credits)¹		0-6
HDI 501	Principles and Practices of Humanitarian Response ²
HDI 504	Foundations of Humanitarian and Disaster Leadership
HDI 544	Organizing Emergency Humanitarian Assistance ¹
Section B - Concentration (Select 4-10 credits)¹		4-10
HDI 614	Transformational Development
HDI 624	Refugee and Forced Migration Issues
HDI 564	Disaster Management
HDI 574	NGO Leadership
HDI 584	Anti-Human Trafficking and Gender-Based Violence
HDI 594	Monitoring, Evaluation, and Program Design
HDI 654	Disaster, Crisis, & Trauma Intervention
Total Credits		10

¹ The maximum number of credits for the certificate is 10.

² HDI 501 should only be selected if neither HDI 504 nor HDI 544 are selected.

Format: Courses are available in online or in-person format with the exception of HDI 504 (only available as an in-person one week intensive with remote pre and post work).

Continuing into M.A. Program: After completion of the Certificate, learners who then want to pursue an M.A. in Humanitarian & Disaster Leadership degree can have the courses taken in this certificate applied towards the program, but will need to apply and be accepted into the M.A. in Humanitarian & Disaster Leadership program.

With Other Graduate Programs: This certificate is a good complement to other Wheaton College graduate programs.