

LITFIN SCHOOL OF MINISTRY AND THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The Litfin School of Ministry and Theological Studies at Wheaton College prepares students for the work of ministry in a liberal arts education environment committed to the biblical, theological, and spiritual formation of God's people. Our programs and faculty focus on develop ministers and scholars rooted in Christ and equipped for global leadership.

The Litfin School of Ministry and Theological Studies brings together two distinct and important aspects of Wheaton's graduate mission. At both the undergraduate and graduate levels, the School of Mission, Ministry and Leadership (<https://catalog.wheaton.edu/graduate/mission-ministry-leadership/>) prepares students for a lifetime of ministry leadership in a variety of vocational settings. The programs and faculty in the School of Biblical and Theological Studies (<https://catalog.wheaton.edu/graduate/biblical-theological-studies/>) focus on developing the tools and resources necessary for studying the Bible, understanding the history of the church, and reflecting theologically on the challenging questions facing God's people today. Together, these two aspects of the Litfin School of Ministry and Theological Studies provide broad set of resources necessary for effectively preparing students to serve Christ and his Kingdom in the world today.
