This Catalog is for informational purposes and does not constitute a contract.

Wheaton College prohibits unlawful discrimination and harassment based on any category protected by law, including sex, in any education program or activity that it operates, as required by Title IX and its regulations, including in admissions, employment, housing or in any aspect of the educational programs and activities of the College. As a Christ-centered institution, Wheaton College retains the right to make employment, admission, and educational decisions based on an individual’s religious beliefs and conduct consistent with the Wheaton College Statement of Faith (https://www.wheaton.edu/about-wheaton/statement-of-faith-and-educational-purpose/), Community Covenant (https://www.wheaton.edu/about-wheaton/community-covenant/), and other College policies.

To report information about or make a complaint of discrimination under Equity or Title IX, please file a report on the Student or Employee Portal or use the reporting link (https://www.wheaton.edu/life-at-wheaton/student-development-offices/equity-and-title-ix-at-wheaton-college/reporting-to-the-college/). Inquiries about Equity or Title IX may be referred to Wheaton College’s Director of Equity and Title IX Coordinator (located in the Student Services Building at 418 Chase Street Wheaton, IL 60187, equityandtitleix@wheaton.edu and 630-752-7885), the U.S. Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights (https://ocr.ced.gov/contact-ocr/), or both.

More information is available in Wheaton College’s full nondiscrimination policy and grievance procedures (https://www.wheaton.edu/nondiscrimination/).
