

CERTIFICATE IN BIBLICAL EXEGESIS - GREEK

Coordinator, Aubrey Buster

The Certificate in Biblical Exegesis - Greek is a program that equips students to interpret the Bible in its original languages. It provides the most rigorous opportunity for students to engage in the deep study of Scripture at Wheaton College and prepares students for using the Bible in ministry, for further graduate studies, and for missions, translation, and education work throughout the world.

Requirements

Requirements for the Certificate in Biblical Exegesis - Greek are 28 credits:

Code	Title	Credits
Greek Language Sequence ¹		12
GREK 101	Elementary Greek I
GREK 102	Elementary Greek II
GREK 201	Intermediate Greek
Core Certificate Requirements		16
BITH 325	Biblical Interpretation and Hermeneutics
BITH 409	Introduction to New Testament Exegesis
BITH 459	Greek Exegesis
Select 4 credits in 300 or 400-level GREK
Total Credits		28

¹ Students with beginning to intermediate knowledge of Greek prior to matriculation may substitute for those hours the equivalent number of hours in any other HEBR/GREK/LATN courses.