

INTERCULTURAL ENGAGEMENT ENDORSEMENT

The Intercultural Engagement Endorsement provides students the opportunity to develop intercultural competencies through immersive intercultural experience; coursework in intercultural competencies; course work in global issues or further foreign language study; and participation in on-campus global events. The endorsement is open to students from all majors and, students are encouraged to integrate it with their major.

Requirements

Requirements for the Intercultural Engagement Endorsement are 19-20 credit hours. These include:

Total Credits 19-20

² Foreign language and global issues courses taken during study abroad may be double counted toward the required number of credits.

³ GPS will include a list of eligible events posted at the beginning of each semester which can then be updated as other events are announced. If students find other on-campus events not widely publicized, they can ask GPS to approve them.

⁴ If students have already taken an AIS course that is not listed below, they may not take a second AIS course to meet this requirement.
