

HUMAN NEEDS AND GLOBAL RESOURCES CERTIFICATE

Requirements

Director, Laura Yoder

Certificate candidates are required to complete 16 hours of preparatory course work before the internship, including:

Code	Title	Credits
Required pre-internship courses:
HNGR 114	Poverty, Justice and Transformation	4
HNGR/ANTH 385	Field Research Methods	4
ANTH 353	Culture and Difference	4
Electives
Select one or more of the following:		4
BITH 478	Marginal Voices in Old Testament Studies
BIOL 318	Global Health
CORE 344	AIS: Gender and Global Health *
ENVR 315	Nature, Environment & Society
CORE 325	AIS: Nature, Environment, and Society *
HIST 391	Topics in History (Indigenous Histories in the Majority World)
RELI 364	Islam: Foundations to Modernity
SOC 385	Social Change in Latin America
SPAN 343	Latin American Colonial Literature (1492-1800)
SPAN 344	Modern Latin American Literature
IR 315	Politics of Global Development
ECON 365	Development Economics
Total Credits		16

Code	Title	Credits
HNGR Internship courses:
HNGR 481	Introduction to Global Christian Perspective	0
HNGR 484	Global Christian Perspective	4
HNGR 491	Introduction to Internship in Development	0
HNGR 496	Internship in Development	4-8
Independent Study
Credit in either student's major field of study or under the HNGR Program		2-4
Upon Return to Campus, post-internship course:
HNGR 494	HNGR Capstone Integration Seminar	2

* College policy states that students shall not be allowed to take more than one AIS course.

Students who complete the preparatory course work, internship, independent study, and integrative seminar will receive the Human Needs and Global Resources Certificate in recognition of fulfillment of all requirements.
