

GENERAL STUDIES ENDORSEMENT FOR FOURTH- YEAR MAJORS IN POLITICS AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Requirements for the General Studies Endorsement for Fourth-Year Majors in Politics and International Relations are 12 credit hours, as follows:

Code	Title	Credits
Politics and International Relations Department:		12
12 elective credits outside the Christ at the Core curriculum, the IR, PACS, PPE, or PSCI department prefixes, or any other requirements in the student's program of study. <sup>1,2</sup>
Total Credits		12

<sup>2</sup> Only credits taken at Wheaton during a student's fourth year will count towards the endorsement, but credits taken before the fourth year may count with departmental approval.
